Maximum coverage period	13 weeks

Elimination Period

- This is the number of days you must be disabled before you can collect disability benefits.
- Benefits are payable after a period of seven calendar days due to injury or sickness.

Partial Disability Benefits

- Partial disability benefits can be payable if your earnings are between 20% and 80% of your pre-disability earnings.

Successive Disability Benefits

- If you become disabled for the same condition within 60 days following your prior disability, your benefits will continue under the same claim.

Maximum Coverage Period

Benefit Exclusions & Reductions

Like any insurance, this short-term disability insurance policy does have some exclusions. You will not receive benefits if:

- Your disability is the result of a self-inflicted injury or act of war
- Your disability is the result of cosmetic surgery, unless related to a disabling condition
- Your disability occurs while you are committing a felony or misdemeanor or participating in a riot
- Workers' Compensation

Your benefits may be reduced if you are eligible to receive benefits from:

- Sick pay from your employer
- A state disability plan or similar compulsory benefit act or law
- A retirement plan
- Social Security
- Any form of employment

A complete list of benefit exclusions and reductions is included in the policy. State restrictions may apply to this plan.

This is not intended as a complete description of the insurance coverage offered. Controlling provisions are provided in the policy, and this summary does not modify those provisions or the insurance in any way. This is not a binding contract. A certificate of coverage will be made available to you that describes the benefits in greater detail. Refer to your certificate for your maximum benefit amounts. Should there be a difference between this summary and the policy, the policy will govern.
